$100 million for child care services in disadvantaged communities

More than 700 applications were successful in the latest round of the Community Child Care Fund \(CCCF\) Open Competitive Grant.

More than $100 million will go to 385 child care providers to help them stay open and increase the number of children accessing care in regional, remote and disadvantaged communities.

A total of 1194 applications were received from 962 child care services under Round 3 of the grant.

Funding will be allocated across three financial years, from 2021 to 2024.
