

Australian Government
Department of Education,
Skills and Employment

Response to the Four Week Review of the Early Childhood Education and Care Relief Package

The Australian Government has responded to the Four Week Review of the Early Childhood Education and Care Relief Package with the Minister for Education Dan Tehan announcing an additional $12.8 million in funding to support services to continue to provide care for essential workers and vulnerable children. This new funding includes:

- $12 million for child care services that have more than 30 per cent or more of full-time equivalent staff ineligible for the JobKeeper Payment.
- $800,000 to increase the level of funding for In Home Care providers.

For more information visit dese.gov.au/covid-19/childcare.

For up to date information on COVID-19 for providers and services visit the Department of Education, Skills and Employment.

Subscribe to Department of Education, Skills and Employment updates and emails

Forward this email to a friend.

Twitter

Facebook

Website